

Private Lee O'Callaghan 1st Battalion RIP 09.08.2004. Lee came from Bermondsey, London and had been a student at SFX College, Clapham. He was aged 20 when shot in the chest by a Shia militiaman when he in Basra, Iraq on August 9th 2004. He was an avid Millwall, supporter and Millwall fans campaigned to get Private Lee's name included in the new street names at the "Elephant Park Development", "O'Callaghan Way" was chosen alongside three historic street names which featured around the Elephant hundreds of years ago.