

Malcolm

I'm delighted to hear from you. I hope that both Jean and yourself are fighting fit and in good health!

I'm so sorry to hear of Michael's death. I've copied Brian Sanders into this email so that we can pray for him at next year's remembrance mass.

Do you have contact details for Clare? There may be an obituary available we can publish in Concordia. It could be very fitting tribute to Michael.

Many thanks for letting me know.

Best wishes for Christmas and the New Year.

Eddie

I hope you are not in the middle of festivities when this arrives.

I have just received a card from Clare Hadida telling me that her husband, Michael Hadida had died on 10th May 2018. This was 2 days after his 86th birthday. I spoke to her today and she asked me to let COXA know of his death. She was unaware Clapham College did not exist in the form of our schooldays and was thinking it would be appropriate to let them know. I assumed there was no direct connection, although the Chaplain may have room for praying for the deceased former students of the site.

Could I leave you to follow up your contacts as you see fit.

Regards,
Malcolm Corey
