

Old Boys and their Doings.

IT is most gratifying to note that William McLaughlin (an account of whose successful career at Clapham College has already appeared in the pages of the Xaverian) has passed the recent London University Intermediate Science Examination.

We have to record with equal pleasure that Thomas J. Monaghan (Mayfield) has also passed the recent London University Intermediate Science (Engineering) Examination.

R. E. Bury (Bruges) has passed the first Examination for Civil Engineers.

Francis Early (Manchester) has passed the Law Preliminary Examination.

Chris Buckley (Manchester) is a member of the West Bromwich Albion Football Team and his brother Franklin, for one season with the Collegiate Team, has been for a year operating in the Aston Villa ranks.

Herbert Dorran (Manchester) goes into residence at Hammersmith College, on Sept. 6th. He came out first on the list amongst Catholics in the recent King's Scholarship Examination.

The Rev. H. E. Daly, (Mayfield) has been appointed assistant Secretary to His Grace the Archbishop of Westminster.

Bernard Brown, (Manchester) at one time private secretary to Sir Joseph Leng, of Sheffield newspaper fame, has now a position as manager of a department, and has, moreover, recently married. We tender him our best wishes.

Ben McKeogh (Manchester) has passed the Preliminary Examination of the London Banker's Institute, taking the following subjects:—Practical Banking, Commercial Law, Book-keeping Preliminary and Final, Political Economy and Mathematics.

The Rev. J. F. Moynihan, (Mayfield) has been appointed Rector of the Church of the Most Precious Blood, Borough, S.E.

Our congratulations and best wishes to Charles Amiel, (Manchester and Bruges) on his recent marriage.

Herbert Rochford, (Mayfield), now a student at St. John's Seminary Wondersh has passed the recent London Matriculation Examination.

T. E. Quan (Mayfield) is now manager of the Newbury Chemical Company.

Reginald Kelly (Mayfield) has distinguished himself lately in athletics in various Sports. At the Gaelic Sports at Leabridge he won the 220 yards race and a six guinea prize. At Tramore Sports he won the hundred-yards race. The average age of the athletes competing against him was twenty-four years.