

Inner London Education Authority

CLAPHAM COLLEGE
MALWOOD ROAD, LONDON SW12 8EN

Headmaster M. GLEESON, B.A.

Telephone 01-673 7122

21st February 1977.

Mr D.M. Martin,
59 Thornhill,
North Weald Bassett,
Essex.

Dear Mr Martin,

I want to thank the Clapham Old Xaverians' Association and your good self for the wonderful contribution which you have made to us. It will be devoted entirely to the Chapel Fund; as will most of our fundraising ventures over the next couple of years (apart from Lenten Contributions to the Southwark Children's fund). We are proud of the Chapel and we hope that it will continue to be the focal point of the Old Boys' spiritual association with both past, present and future pupils and teachers. Its use is restricted at the moment because of rebuilding in that wing; but we are confident that, after Easter, it will become fully available.

I am as anxious as you are to see that suitable efforts are made to recruit pupils to the Association and you may be assured of the school's active support of this and other ventures of mutual importance. You have the continued liaison with teachers who are already bona fide members of the Clapham Old Xaverians' Association, as well as the honorary membership which I understand you have accorded to my colleagues generally; and, I hope, reasonable access to the school's facilities.

As Graham Hudson is the Year Master for the Sixth Form, it should be easy to arrange suitable meetings to promote membership through him, and I look to him to foster this objective.

Many thanks again for the Association's splendid contribution to the school's Chapel Fund.

Yours very sincerely,

M. Gleeson

M. Gleeson.
Headmaster.